Son, David, the house and lot of land and wharf in the occupation of William Harris; also that part of the wharf belonging to me in Swedesborough; also farm on Oldmans Creek, purchased of Hezekiah Toy (now in the occupation of John and Guideon Zuins), beginning at mouth of Sealing hole Creek to the head thereof, thence along lands of the late William Shute, thence along lands of Matthew Gill to Beaver Creek, thence down said Creek to Oldmans Creek, containing (after excepting 5 acres of meadow of Daniel Hooper) 397 acres; also my undivided half part of cedar swamp in said Co., purchased of Samuel Flanagan, at Sheriff's sale (as property of William Kille); also cedar swamp purchased of Hezekial Toy (6 acres).

The lots in Swedesborough on south side of Salem Road running down the road to John Logan's land; also farm purchased of Assignees of Elijah Harker (a bankrupt) on Oldmans Creek, Woolwich Twsp., said Co. (200 acres), and tract of woodland purchased of John Brown, of Philadelphia, bounded by lands of Thomas and William Brown, Joseph Ogden, Francis Hover and others; all to be sold to pay my debts. To the Rev. Henry Feltus, rector of the Church at Swedesborough, silver spectacles. A Fulling House to be built on the farm devised to daughter, Abby Harker, per agreement made in a lease to John Boskin, Mar. 1, 1804. House and store on the lot of John Van Dyke now in occupation of John Dyer, to be sold at the expiration of my lease of the ground. Friend, Guideon Scull to be Guardian of daughter, Abby. Brother-in-law, Rev. John Crow and friend, Charles Lock, to be Guardians of son, David, until he is 21. Executors—friends, Charles Lock, William Wood and Thomas Clark, Jr. Witnesses—William Rattoone, Ezekiel Harker, James Wright.

1806, April 29. Codicil. Whereas an action of ejectment has been sometime depending in the Supreme Court of this State against me at the suit of the Devisees of John Kille, dec'd, and the heirs of the late Robert Brown, dec'd, who claim title to tract of land before devised by me to my daughter, Abby Harker, on south side of Raccoon Creek and bounded by lands of Daniel England and others (200 acres); also that tract of land (devised to my said daughter) beginning at the mouth of Church Run at upper end of the Wharf (and devised to my son, David Harker) bounded by Church Run, lands of Thomas Brown and others and located by John Reading for 100 acres. And whereas, I trust I have good and legal title to said 2 tracts of land; Executors are to defend the said action against me, and if a proper compromise be offered to accept it. I revoke the devise before made by me to my daughter, Abby Harker, for the said 100 acres located by John Reading, and devise the said tract to Guideon Scull, Joseph Harker and Samuel Black, in trust, the yearly rents and profits to the use and benefit of the Minister of the Society of the Baptist Church, near Scull Town, Upper Penns Neck, Salem Co.; should the said Church be without a pastor, then the yearly profits of said 100 acres to be paid to the Guardians of said daughter for her use. 1810, April 10. Orphans' Court. Agreement between the Heirs and Adm'rs of James Harris, dec'd, James Clark, Esq. and Thomas Harris—Exceptants; William Biddle, Esq. and Abigail, his wife, Adm'x, of James Harris, dec'd—Respondents. I. That the exception filed against the amount of said Adm'rs in regard to interest on amount of the Inventory shall be withdrawn, and balance struck exclusive of any charge of interest, but the Adm'rs in distributing said balance among the several persons entitled to distribution, shall allow interest on each one's share after the expiration of one year from the decease of James Harris, the Intestate. II. Exceptions against said amount in regard to debts due from Joseph Daniels, William Stephens and John Mulford, be withdrawn, and the bonds and mortgages held against the said debtors be delivered by said Adm'rs to James Clark and Thomas Harris—and what money they may recover, they will pay over to the Adm'rs. III. The exception in regard to debt due from Levi Hewit shall also be withdrawn—that the land which was mortgaged by said Hewit to John Yates and assigned by him to the deceased, to secure the debt mentioned in said exceptions, and which has since been recovered by the Adm'rs in action of Ejectment brought in the name of John Yates, shall be valued by Henry Shaw, Amos Fithian and Moses Birt, and the said Adm'rs shall take the same at such valuation and be charged in their account with such valuation in addition to the balance that shall this day be settled by the Court. IV. Further agreed that in cases where either of the persons entitled to distribution was indebted to James Harris, the Intestate, interest shall be added to such debt to the 28th Sept. 1804, when the balance shall be struck between the debt and interest and the distributive share. V. Agreement shall be filed with the Surrogate for the benefit of all parties. Signed by James Clark, Thomas Harris, William Biddle and Abigail Biddle. Also signed by James Giles (counsel for Exceptants), Daniel Elmer (counsel for Exceptants) and John Moore White and J. McIlwaine, (counsel for Adm'rs). File 6210 F.

INDEXES

I. INDEX OF NAMES OF PERSONS
II. INDEX OF PLACE-NAMES

Index of Names of Persons

NOTE.—The names of testators, intestate persons or wards, printed in heavy type in the preceding text, are not repeated in this Index, as a rule. Where maiden names can be ascertained from the body of the will, they are included.

Where surnames in common use today, or at least with well-known spellings, are unusually or curiously used in the text, the current modern spelling is substituted in this Index, to facilitate reference. To a lesser degree the same rule has been applied to Christian names.
